CHAPTER 2

CYBERCRIMES, MALICIOUS COMMUNICATIONS, SENTENCING AND ORDERS TO PROTECT COMPLAINANT FROM THE HARMFUL EFFECT OF MALICIOUS COMMUNICATIONS

PART I: CYBERCRIMES

Unlawful access

2. (1) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally accesses—
- (a) data;
 - (b) a computer program;
 - (c) a computer data storage medium; or
 - (d) a computer system,
- 30
is guilty of an offence.
- (2) For purposes of this section a person accesses—
- (a) data when the person is in a position to—
 - (i) alter, modify or delete the data; 35
 - (ii) copy or move the data to a different location in the computer data storage medium in which it is held or to any other computer data storage medium;
 - (iii) obtain its output; or
 - (iv) otherwise use the data; 40
 - (b) a computer program when the person is in a position to—
 - (i) alter, modify or delete the computer program;
 - (ii) copy or move the computer program to a different location in the computer data storage medium in which it is held or to any other computer data storage medium; 45
 - (iii) cause a computer program to perform any function;
 - (iv) obtain its output; or
 - (v) otherwise use the computer program;
 - (c) a computer data storage medium when the person is in a position to—
 - (i) access data as contemplated in paragraph (a) or access a computer program as contemplated in paragraph (b), stored on the computer data storage medium; 50
 - (ii) store data or a computer program on a computer data storage medium; or
 - (iii) otherwise use the computer data storage medium; or
 - (d) a computer system when the person is in a position to— 55
 - (i) use any resources of;
 - (ii) instruct; or
 - (iii) communicate with, a computer system.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1), the actions of a person, to the extent that such actions exceed his or her lawful authority to access data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or a computer system, must be regarded as unlawful.

Unlawful interception of data

3. (1) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally intercepts data, including electromagnetic emissions from a computer system carrying such data, within or which is transmitted to or from a computer system, is guilty of an offence. 5

(2) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally possesses data, with the knowledge that such data was intercepted unlawfully as contemplated in subsection (1), is guilty of an offence. 10

(3) Any person who is found in possession of data, in regard to which there is a reasonable suspicion that such data was intercepted unlawfully as contemplated in subsection (1) and who is unable to give a satisfactory exculpatory account of such possession, is guilty of an offence.

(4) For purposes of this section “interception of data” means the acquisition, viewing, capturing or copying of data of a non-public nature through the use of a hardware or software tool contemplated in section 4(2) or any other means, so as to make some or all of the data available to a person, other than the lawful owner or holder of the data, the sender or the recipient or the intended recipient of that data and includes the— 15 20

- (a) examination or inspection of the contents of the data; and
- (b) diversion of the data or any part thereof from its intended destination to any other destination.

Unlawful acts in respect of software or hardware tool

4. (1) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally— 25

- (a) uses; or
- (b) possesses,

any software or hardware tool for purposes of contravening the provisions of section 2(1), 3(1), 5(1), 6(1) or 7(1)(a) or (d), is guilty of an offence.

(2) For purposes of this section “software or hardware tool” means any electronic, mechanical or other instrument, device, equipment, apparatus or a substantial component thereof or a computer program, which is designed or adapted primarily for the purposes to— 30

- (a) access as contemplated in section 2(1);
- (b) intercept data as contemplated in section 3(1); 35
- (c) interfere with data or a computer program as contemplated in section 5(1);
- (d) interfere with a computer data storage medium or a computer system as contemplated in section 6(1); or
- (e) acquire, make available or use a password, access code or similar data or devices as defined in section 7(3). 40

Unlawful interference with data or computer program

5. (1) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally interferes with— 45

- (a) data; or
- (b) a computer program,

is guilty of an offence.

(2) For purposes of this section “interferes with data or a computer program” means to permanently or temporarily—

- (a) delete data or a computer program;

14. Any person who unlawfully makes available, broadcasts or distributes by means of a computer system, a data message to a person, group of persons or the general public with the intention to incite—
- (a) the causing of any damage to property belonging to; or
 - (b) violence against,
- a person or a group of persons, is guilty of an offence.

Data message which threatens persons with damage to property or violence

15. (1) A person commits an offence if he or she unlawfully and intentionally makes available, broadcasts or distributes, by means of a computer system, a data message which—
- (a) threatens a person with—
 - (i) damage to property belonging to, or violence against, that person; or
 - (ii) damage to property belonging to, or violence against a related person; or
 - (b) threatens—
 - (i) a group of persons;
 - (ii) any person forming part of that group of persons; or
 - (iii) any person associated with that group of persons, with damage to property belonging to, or violence against—
 - (aa) that group of persons;
 - (bb) any person who forms part of that group of persons; or
 - (cc) any person who is associated with that group of persons,
 and a reasonable person in possession of the same information and with regard to all the circumstances would regard the data message, either by itself or in conjunction with any other data message, as a threat of damage to property or violence to a person or category of persons contemplated in paragraph (a) or (b), respectively.

Distribution of data message of intimate image

16. (1) Any person (“A”) who unlawfully and intentionally makes available, broadcasts or distributes, by means of a computer system, a data message of an intimate image of a person (“B”) without the consent of B, is guilty of an offence.
- (2) For purposes of subsection (1)—
- (a) “B” means—
 - (i) the person who can be identified as being displayed in the data message;
 - (ii) any person who is described as being displayed in the data message, irrespective of the fact that he or she cannot be identified as being displayed in the data message; or
 - (iii) any person who can be identified from other information as being displayed in the data message; and
 - (b) “intimate image” means a depiction of a person—
 - (i) real or simulated and made by any means in which—
 - (aa) B is nude, or his or her genital organs or anal region, or if B is a female, her breasts, are displayed; or

- (bb) the covered genital or anal region of B, or if B is a female, her covered breasts, are displayed in a manner that violates or offends the sexual integrity or dignity of B; and
- (ii) in respect of which B so displayed retains a reasonable expectation of privacy at the time that the data message was made. 5

18. (1) If the evidence in criminal proceedings does not prove the commission of the offence charged but proves a contravention of section 17—

- (a) in respect of the offence charged; or
- (b) in respect of any other offence of which an accused may be convicted on the offence charged, 25

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(2) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 3(1), does not prove the offence or a contravention of section 17 in respect of that offence, but proves—

- (a) a contravention of section 2(1);
- (b) a contravention of section 3(2) or (3); or 30
- (c) a contravention of section 4(1) in so far as it relates to the use or possession of a software or hardware tool for purposes of contravening section 3(1),

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(3) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 5(1), does not prove the offence or a contravention of section 17 in respect of that offence, but proves— 35

- (a) a contravention of section 2(1);
- (b) a contravention of section 4(1) in so far as it relates to the use or possession of a software or hardware tool for purposes of contravening section 5(1); or
- (c) the offence of malicious injury to property, 40

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(4) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 6(1), does not prove the offence or a contravention of section 17 in respect of that offence, but proves—

- (a) a contravention of section 2(1);
- (b) a contravention of section 4(1) in so far as it relates to the use or possession of a software or hardware tool for purposes of contravening section 6(1); or 45
- (c) the offence of malicious injury to property;

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(5) (a) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 7(1)(a) or (d) does not prove the offence or a contravention of section 17 in respect of that offence, but proves—

- (i) a contravention of section 2(1); 50
- (ii) a contravention of section 7(1)(b) or (c) or (2); or
- (iii) a contravention of section 4(1) in so far as it relates to the use or possession of a software or hardware tool to acquire or use a password, access code or similar data or device, 55

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(b) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 7(1)(b) or (c) does not prove the offence or a contravention of section 17 in respect of that offence, but proves a contravention of section 7(2), the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(6) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 8, does not prove the offence or a contravention of section 17 in respect of the offence, but proves—

- (a) a contravention of section 2(1); 5
- (b) a contravention of section 4(1), in so far as it relates to the use or possession of a software or hardware tool for the purposes of—
 - (i) interfering with data or a computer program as contemplated in section 5(1); or
 - (ii) interfering with a computer data storage medium or a computer system as contemplated in section 6(1); 10
- (c) a contravention of section 7(1) or (2), in so far as the password, access code or similar data or device was acquired, possessed, provided to another person or used for purposes of contravening the provisions of section 8;
- (d) a contravention of section 9(1) or (2); 15
- (e) the common law offence of fraud or attempt to commit that offence;
- (f) the common law offence of forgery or uttering or attempt to commit that offence; or
- (g) the common law offence of theft or attempt to commit that offence,

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved. 20

(7) (a) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 9(1), does not prove the offence or a contravention of section 17 in respect of the offence, but proves—

- (i) the common law offence of forgery;
- (ii) a contravention of section 9(2); or
- (iii) the common law offence of uttering, 25

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(b) If the evidence on a charge of a contravention of section 9(2), does not prove the offence, but proves the common law offence of uttering, the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(8) If an accused is charged with a contravention of section 11(1), and the evidence on the charge does not prove a contravention of section 11(1) or a contravention of section 17 in respect of that offence, but a proves a contravention of—

- (a) section 2(1);
- (b) section 3(1) or any competent verdict provided for in subsection (2);
- (c) section 5(1) or any competent verdict provided for in subsection (3); 35
- (d) section 6(1) or any competent verdict provided for in subsection (4); or
- (e) section 7(1) or any competent verdict provided for in subsection (5),

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved.

(9) If an accused is charged with a contravention of section 11(2) or a contravention of section 17 in respect of that offence, and the evidence on the charge does not prove a contravention of section 11(2), but a proves a contravention of— 40

- (a) section 2(1);
- (b) section 5(1) or any competent verdict provided for in subsection (3); or
- (c) section 6(1) or any competent verdict provided for in subsection (4),

the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved. 45

(10) If the evidence on a charge for any offence referred to in the preceding subsections does not prove the commission of the offence so charged or any competent verdict in respect of the offence but proves the commission of an offence which by reason of the essential elements of that offence is included in the offence so charged, the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved. 50

(11) If an accused is charged with a contravention of section 14, 15 or 16, and the evidence on the charge does not prove the offence in question or a contravention of section 17 in respect of the offence, but proves the commission of an offence which by reason of the essential elements of that offence is included in the offence so charged, the accused may be found guilty of the offence so proved. 55

PART V: SENTENCING

Sentencing

19. (1) Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 2(1), 3(3) or 7(2) is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 3(1) or (2), 4(1), 5(1), 6(1) or 7(1) is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 11(1) is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(4) A court which convicts a person of an offence in terms of section 8, 9(1) or (2), 10 or 11(2) may, where a penalty is not prescribed in respect of that offence by any other law, impose a sentence, as provided for in section 276 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, which that court considers appropriate and which is within that court's penal jurisdiction.

(5) A court which imposes any sentence in terms of this section, or where a person is convicted of the offence of theft that was committed or facilitated by electronic means, must, without excluding other relevant factors, consider as aggravating factors—

- (a) the fact that the offence was committed by electronic means;
- (b) the extent of the prejudice and loss suffered by the complainant or other person as a result of the commission of such an offence;
- (c) the extent to which the person gained financially, or received any favour, benefit, reward, compensation or any other advantage from the commission of the offence; or
- (d) the fact that the offence was committed in concert with one or more persons.

(6) If a person is convicted of any offence provided for in section 2(1), 3(1), 5(1), 6(1), 7(1), 8, 9(1) or (2), 10 or 11(1) or (2), a court which imposes any sentence in terms of those sections where the offence was committed—

- (a) by a person; or
- (b) with the collusion or assistance of another person, who as part of his or her duties, functions or lawful authority was in charge of, in control of, or had access to data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or a computer system belonging to another person in respect of which the offence in question was committed, must, unless substantial and compelling circumstances justifying the imposition of another sentence impose, with or without a fine, a period of direct imprisonment which may not be suspended as contemplated in section 297(4) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977.

(7) Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 14, 15 or 16 is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

PART VI: ORDERS TO PROTECT COMPLAINANT FROM THE HARMFUL EFFECT OF MALICIOUS COMMUNICATIONS

Order to protect complainant pending finalisation of criminal proceedings

20. (1) A complainant who lays a charge with the South African Police Service that an offence contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16 has allegedly been committed against him or her, may on an ex parte basis in the prescribed form and manner, apply to a magistrate's court for an order pending the finalisation of the criminal proceedings to—

- (a) prohibit any person from further making available, broadcasting or distributing the data message contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16 which relates to the charge; or
- (b) order an electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system to remove or disable access to the data message in question.

(2) The court must as soon as is reasonably possible consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (1) and may, for that purpose, consider any additional evidence it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which must form part of the record of proceedings.

(3) If the court is satisfied that there is prima facie evidence that the data message in question constitutes an offence as contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16, the court may issue the order referred to in subsection (1), in the prescribed form.

(4) The order must be served on the person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or electronic communications service provider or person referred to in subsection (1)(b) in the prescribed form and manner: Provided, that if the court is satisfied that the order cannot be served in the prescribed form and manner, the court may make an order allowing service to be effected in the manner specified in that order.

(5) An order referred to in subsection (1) is of force and effect from the time it is issued by the court and the existence thereof has been brought to the attention of the person referred to in subsection 1(a) or electronic communications service provider or person referred to in subsection 1(b).

(6) A person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or electronic communications service provider or person referred to in subsection (1)(b) may, within 30 days after the order has been served on him, her or it in terms of subsection (4), upon notice to the magistrate's court concerned, in the prescribed form and manner, apply to the court for the setting aside or amendment of the order referred to in subsection (1). 5

(7) The court must as soon as is reasonably possible consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (6) and may for that purpose, consider such additional evidence as it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which shall form part of the record of the proceedings. 10

(8) The court may, for purposes of subsections (2) and (7), in the prescribed manner cause to be subpoenaed any person as a witness at those proceedings or to provide any book, document or object, if the evidence of that person or book, document or object appears to the court essential to the just decision of the case. 15

(9) Any person or electronic communications service provider who fails to comply with an order referred to in subsection (5) is guilty of an offence.

(10) Any person who is subpoenaed in terms of subsection (8) to attend proceedings and who fails to— 20

(a) attend or to remain in attendance;

(b) appear at the place and on the date and at the time to which the proceedings in question may be adjourned;

(c) remain in attendance at those proceedings as so adjourned; or 25

(d) produce any book, document or object specified in the subpoena, is guilty of an offence.

(11) The provisions in respect of appeal and review as provided for in the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1944, and the Superior Courts Act, 2013, apply to proceedings in terms of this section. 30

Electronic communications service provider or person in control of computer system to furnish particulars to court

21. (1) If an application for a protection order is made in terms of section 20(1) and the court is satisfied in terms of section 20(3) that a protection order must be issued and the identity or address of the person who made available, broadcasted or distributed the data message in question is not known, the court may— 35

(a) adjourn the proceedings to any time and date on the terms and conditions which the court deems appropriate; and

(b) issue a direction in the prescribed form directing an electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system to furnish the court in the prescribed manner by means of an affidavit in the prescribed form with— 40

(i) the electronic communications identity number from where the data message originated;

(ii) the name, surname, identity number and address of the person to whom the electronic communications identity number has been assigned; 45

(iii) any information which indicates that the data message was or was not sent from the electronic communications identity number of the person to the electronic communications identity number of the complainant; and 50

(iv) any other information that is available to an electronic communications service provider or a person in control of a computer system which may be of assistance to the court to identify the person who made available, broadcasted or distributed the data message in question or the electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system which provides a service to the person who made available, broadcasted or distributed the data message. 55

(2) If the court issues a direction in terms of subsection (1) the court must direct that the direction be served on the electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system in the prescribed manner. 60

(3) (a) The information referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) must be provided to the court within five ordinary court days from the time that the direction is served on an electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system.

(b) An electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system on which a direction is served, may in the prescribed manner by means of an affidavit in the prescribed form apply to the court for—

- (i) an extension of the period of five ordinary court days referred to in paragraph (a) for a further period of five ordinary court days on the grounds that the information cannot be provided timeously; or
- (ii) the cancellation of the direction on the grounds that—
 - (aa) it does not provide an electronic communications service to either the respondent or complainant or related person; or
 - (bb) the requested information is not available in the records of the electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system.

(4) After receipt of an application in terms of subsection (3)(b), the court—

- (a) must consider the application;
- (b) may, in the prescribed manner, request such additional evidence by way of affidavit from the electronic communications service provider or the person in control of a computer system as it deems fit;
- (c) must give a decision in respect thereof; and
- (d) must inform the electronic communications service provider or the person in control of a computer system in the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner of the outcome of the application.

(5) (a) The court may, on receipt of an affidavit from an electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system which contains the information referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i) and (ii), consider the issuing of a protection order in terms of section 20(3) against the person who made available, broadcasted or distributed the data message contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16 on the date to which the proceedings have been adjourned.

(b) Any information furnished to the court in terms of subsection (1)(b) forms part of the evidence that a court may consider in terms of section 20(3).

(6) The Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe reasonable tariffs of compensation payable to electronic communications service providers or persons in control of a computer system for providing the information referred to in subsection (1)(b).

(7) Any electronic communications service provider, employee of an electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system who—

- (a) fails to furnish the required information within five ordinary court days from the time that the direction is served on such electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system to a court in terms of subsection (3)(a) or such extended period allowed by the court in terms of subsection (3)(b); or
- (b) makes a false statement in an affidavit referred to in subsection (1)(b) or (3)(b) in a material respect,

is guilty of an offence.

Orders on finalisation of criminal proceedings

22. (1) Whenever a person is—

- (a) convicted of an offence in terms of section 14, 15 or 16; or
- (b) acquitted of an offence in terms of section 14, 15 or 16,

but evidence proves that the person engaged in, or attempted to engage in, harassment as contemplated in the Protection from Harassment Act, 2011, the trial court may, after holding an enquiry, issue a protection order contemplated in section 9(4) of the Protection from Harassment Act, 2011, against the person, whereafter the provisions of that Act shall apply with the necessary changes required by the context.

(2) The trial court must, on convicting a person for the commission of an offence contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16 order—

- (a) that person to refrain from further making available, broadcasting or distributing the data message contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16 which relates to the charge on which he or she is convicted;

- (b) that person or any other person to destroy the data message in question or any copy of the data message; or
- (c) an electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system to remove or disable access to the data message in question.

(3) The order referred to in subsection (2)(b), in so far as it relates to a person other than the accused, and (2)(c), must be in the prescribed form and must be served on the electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system in the prescribed manner: Provided, that if the trial court is satisfied that the order cannot be served in the prescribed form and manner, the court may make an order allowing service to be effected in the manner specified in that order.

(4) Any person contemplated in subsection (2)(a) or (b) or electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system contemplated in subsection (2)(c) who fails to comply with an order referred to in subsection (2) is guilty of an offence.

(5) For purposes of this section “trial court” means—

- (a) a magistrate’s court established under section 2(1)(f)(i) of the Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944;
- (b) a court for a regional division established under section 2(1)(g)(i) of the Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944; or
- (c) a High Court referred to in section 6(1) of the Superior Courts Act, 2013.

(6) Whenever a person is convicted of an offence in terms of section 14, 15 or 16, the trial court must issue an order that the person must reimburse all expenses reasonably incurred by—

- (a) a complainant as a result of any direction issued in terms of section 21(1)(b); or
- (b) an electronic communications service provider or person in control of a computer system to remove or disable access to the data message in question, whereupon the provisions of section 300 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, shall apply with the necessary changes required by the context, to such order.

Penalties

23. Any person or electronic communications service provider who contravenes the provisions of section 20(9) or (10), 21(7) or 22(4) is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

CHAPTER 3

JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction

24. (1) A court in the Republic trying an offence has jurisdiction where—

- (a) an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 was committed—
 - (i) in the territory of the Republic; or
 - (ii) on board a vessel, a ship, an off-shore installation, or a fixed platform, or an aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic at the time the offence was committed;
- (b) an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 was committed, in the Republic, or outside the Republic, against a person who is citizen of the Republic or ordinarily resident in the Republic;
- (c) an offence in terms of Part I of Chapter 2 was committed, in the Republic, or outside the Republic, against a person who is—
 - (i) a company, incorporated or registered as such under any law, in the Republic; or
 - (ii) any body of persons, corporate or unincorporated, in the Republic;
- (d) an offence in terms of Part I of Chapter 2 was committed, in the Republic, or outside the Republic, against—
 - (i) a restricted computer system contemplated in section 11(1)(b); or
 - (ii) a government facility of the Republic abroad, including an embassy or other diplomatic or consular premises, or any other property of the Republic; or

- (d) any act in preparation of an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2, or any action necessary to commit the offence took place—
- (i) in the territory of the Republic; or
 - (ii) on board a vessel, a ship, an off-shore installation, or a fixed platform, or an aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic at the time the offence was committed. 5
- (2) If the act alleged to constitute an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 was committed outside the Republic, a court of the Republic, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence at the place of its commission, has jurisdiction in respect of that offence if the person to be charged— 10
- (a) is a citizen of the Republic or ordinarily resident in the Republic;
 - (b) was arrested in the territory of the Republic, or in its territorial waters or on board a ship or aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic at the time the offence was committed;
 - (c) is a company, incorporated or registered as such under any law, in the Republic; or 15
 - (d) any body of persons, corporate or unincorporated, in the Republic.
- (3) Any act alleged to constitute an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 and which was committed outside the Republic by a person, other than a person contemplated in subsection (2), is, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence or not at the place of its commission, deemed also to have been committed in the Republic if that— 20
- (a) person is found to be in South Africa; and
 - (b) person is for one or other reason not extradited to, or by South Africa, or if there is no application to extradite that person. 25
- (4) Where a person is charged with attempting, conspiring, aiding, abetting, inducing, inciting, instigating, instructing, commanding or procuring to commit an offence or as an accessory after the offence, the offence is deemed to have been committed not only at the place where the act was committed, but also at every place where the person acted.
- (5) (a) A prosecution in terms of subsections (2) and (3)— 30
- (i) may only be instituted against a person with the written permission of the National Director of Public Prosecutions; and
 - (ii) must commence before a court designated by the National Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (b) A copy of the written permission and designation must be served on the accused and the original thereof must be handed in at the court in which the proceedings are to commence. 35
- (6) The National Commissioner and the National Head of the Directorate, respectively, in consultation with the National Director of Public Prosecutions must issue directives, with which all police officials must comply in the execution of their functions in terms of this Act regarding the investigation of offences that was committed outside the Republic. 40

POWERS TO INVESTIGATE, SEARCH AND ACCESS OR SEIZE

Definitions 45

25. In this Chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise—
- “access” includes without limitation to make use of data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or a computer system or their accessories or components or any part thereof or any ancillary device or component to the extent necessary to search for and seize an article; 50
- “investigator” means any fit and proper person, who is not a member of the South African Police Service and who is—
- (a) identified and authorised in terms of a search warrant contemplated in section 29(3); or
 - (b) requested by a police official in terms of section 31(2), 32(3) or 33(4), to, subject to the direction and control of the police official, assist a police official with the search for, access or seizure of an article; and 55
- “seize” includes to—
- (a) remove a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer system;

- (b) render inaccessible, data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer system in order to preserve evidence;
- (c) make and retain a copy of data or a computer program; or
- (d) make and retain a printout of output of data or a computer program.

Standard Operating Procedures

26. (1) The Cabinet member responsible for policing, in consultation with the National Commissioner, the National Head of the Directorate, the National Director of Public Prosecutions and the Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice must, after following a process of public consultation, within six months of the commencement of this Chapter, issue Standard Operating Procedures which must be observed by—

- (a) the South African Police Service; or
- (b) any other person or agency who or which is authorised in terms of the provision of any other law to investigate any offence in terms of any law, in the investigation of any offence or suspected offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 or any other offence or suspected offence which may be committed by means of or facilitated by the use of an article.

(2) The Standard Operating Procedures referred to in subsection (1) and any amendment thereto must be published in the Gazette.

Application of provisions in this Chapter

27. The Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, applies in addition to the provisions of this Chapter in so far that it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter.

Search for, access to, or seizure of certain articles

28. A police official may, in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, search for, access or seize any article, within the Republic.

Article to be searched for, accessed or seized under search warrant

29. (1) Subject to the provisions of sections 31, 32, 33 and 40(1) and (2) of this Act, section 4(3) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, sections 69(2)(b) and 71 of the Tax Administration Act, 2011, and section 21(e) and (f) of the Customs Control Act, 2014, an article can only be searched for, accessed or seized by virtue of a search warrant issued—

- (a) by a magistrate or judge of the High Court, on written application by a police official, if it appears to the magistrate or judge, from information on oath or by way of affirmation, as set out in the application, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that an article is—
 - (i) within his or her area of jurisdiction; or
 - (ii) being used or is involved in the commission of an offence—
 - (aa) within his or her area of jurisdiction; or
 - (bb) within the Republic, if it is unsure within which area of jurisdiction the article is being used or is involved in the commission of an offence; or
 - (b) by a magistrate or judge of the High Court presiding at criminal proceedings, if it appears to such magistrate or judge that an article is required in evidence at such proceedings.
- (2) A search warrant issued under subsection (1) must require a police official identified in the warrant to search for, access and seize the article in question and, to that end, must authorise the police official to—
- (a) search any person identified in the warrant;
 - (b) enter and search any container, premises, vehicle, facility, ship or aircraft identified in the warrant;
 - (c) search any person who is believed, on reasonable grounds, to be able to furnish any information of material importance concerning the matter under investigation and who is found near such container, on or at such premises, vehicle, facility, ship or aircraft;

- (d) search any person who is believed, on reasonable grounds, to be able to furnish any information of material importance concerning the matter under investigation and who—
 - (i) is nearby; 5
 - (ii) uses; or
 - (iii) is in possession of or in direct control of, any data, computer program, computer data storage medium or computer system identified in the warrant to the extent set out in the warrant;
- (e) search for any article identified in the warrant to the extent set out in the warrant; 10
- (f) access an article identified in the warrant to the extent set out in the warrant;
- (g) seize an article identified in the warrant to the extent set out in the warrant; or
- (h) use or obtain and use any instrument, device, equipment, password, decryption key, data, computer program, computer data storage medium or computer system or other information that is believed, on reasonable grounds, to be necessary to search for, access or seize an article identified in the warrant to the extent set out in the warrant. 15

(3) A search warrant issued under subsection (1) may require an investigator or other person identified in the warrant to assist the police official identified in the warrant, with the search for, access or seizure of the article in question, to the extent set out in the warrant. 20

(4) (a) A search warrant may be executed at any time, unless the person issuing the warrant in writing specifies otherwise.

(b) A search warrant may be issued on any day and is of force until it is executed or is cancelled by the person who issued it or, if such person is not available, by a person with like authority. 25

(5) A police official who executes a warrant under this section must hand to any person whose rights in respect of any search, or article accessed or seized under the warrant have been affected, a copy of the warrant and the written application of the police official contemplated in subsection (1)(a). 30

(6) The provisions of subsections (1) to (5) apply with the changes required by the context to an amendment of a warrant issued in terms of subsection (1).

Oral application for search warrant or amendment of warrant

30. (1) An application referred to in section 29(1)(a), or an application for the amendment of a warrant issued in terms of section 29(1)(a), may be made orally by a specifically designated police official, if it is not reasonably practicable, having regard to the urgency of the case or the existence of exceptional circumstances, to make a written application. 35

(2) An oral application referred to in subsection (1) must—

- (a) indicate the particulars of the urgency of the case or the other exceptional circumstances which, in the opinion of the police official, justify the making of an oral application; and 40
- (b) comply with any supplementary directives relating to oral applications which may be issued by the Chief Justice in terms of section 8(3) of the Superior Courts Act, 2013. 45

(3) A magistrate or judge of the High Court may, upon an oral application made to him or her in terms of subsection (1) and subject to subsection (4), issue a warrant or amend a warrant as contemplated in section 29(1)(a).

(4) A warrant or any amendment to a warrant may only be issued under subsection (3)— 50

- (a) if the magistrate or judge of the High Court concerned is satisfied, on the facts alleged in the oral application concerned, that—
 - (i) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a warrant or any amendment to a warrant applied for could be issued;
 - (ii) a warrant or an amendment to a warrant is necessary immediately in order to search for, access or seize an article— 55
 - (aa) within his or her area of jurisdiction; or
 - (bb) within the Republic, if it is unsure within which area of jurisdiction the article is being used or is involved in the commission of an offence; and 60

- (iii) it is not reasonably practicable, having regard to the urgency of the case or the existence of exceptional circumstances, to make a written application for the issuing of a warrant or to amend a warrant; and
 - (b) on condition that the police official concerned must submit a written application to the magistrate or judge of the High Court concerned within 48 hours after the issuing of the warrant or amended warrant under subsection (3).
- (5) A warrant or any amendment to a warrant issued under subsection (3) must—
- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) be transmitted electronically to the police official or be provided to the specifically designated police official; and
 - (c) contain a summary of the facts which were considered and the grounds upon which the warrant was issued.
- (6) A magistrate or judge of the High Court who has issued a warrant or amended a warrant under subsection (3) or, if he or she is not available, any other magistrate or judge of the High Court must, upon receipt of a written application submitted to him or her in terms of subsection (4)(b), reconsider that application whereupon he or she may confirm, amend or cancel that warrant.
- (7) A magistrate or judge of the High Court contemplated in subsection (6), who amends or cancels the warrant must make an order as he or she deems fit how any article which is affected by his or her decision is to be dealt with.

Search for, access to, or seizure of article without search warrant with consent of person who has lawful authority to consent

31. (1) Any police official may, without a search warrant, execute the powers referred to in section 29(2), subject to any other law, if the person who has the lawful authority to consent to the search for, access to, or seizure of the article in question, consents, in writing, to such search, access or seizure.

(2) A police official acting in terms of subsection (1), may, subject to the lawful consent, in writing, of the person who has the lawful authority to consent, in writing authorise an investigator to assist him or her with the search for, access to, or seizure of the article in question.

Search for, access to, or seizure of article involved in the commission of an offence without search warrant

32. (1) A police official may without a search warrant referred to in section 29(1)(a) search any person, container, premises, vehicle, facility, ship or aircraft for the purposes of performing the powers referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of the definition of “seize” in respect of a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer system referred to in the definition of “article”, if the police official on reasonable grounds believes—

- (a) that a search warrant will be issued to him or her under section 29(1)(a) if he or she applies for such warrant; and
- (b) that the delay in obtaining such warrant would defeat the object of the search and seizure.

(2) A police official may only access or perform the powers referred to in paragraphs (c) or (d) of the definition of “seize”, in respect of the computer data storage medium or a computer system referred to in subsection (1), in accordance with a search warrant issued in terms of section 29(1)(a): Provided that a police official may, if he or she on reasonable grounds believes—

- (a) that a search warrant will be issued to him under section 29(1)(a) if he or she applies for such warrant; and
- (b) it is not reasonably practicable, having regard to the urgency of the case or the existence of exceptional circumstances, to make a written or oral application for a search warrant,

access and perform the powers referred to in paragraphs (c) or (d) of the definition of “seize” without a search warrant.

(3) An investigator authorised in writing by a police official may assist the police official to seize an article as contemplated subsections (1) and (2) and to access the article as contemplated in subsection (2).

Search for, access to and seizure of article on arrest of person

33. (1) A police official may without a warrant, as contemplated in section 40 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, arrest any person—

- (a) who commits any offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 in his or her presence; 5
- (b) whom he or she reasonably suspects of having committed any offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
- (c) who is concerned with or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made or credible information has been received or a reasonable suspicion exists that he or she has been concerned with an offence— 10
 - (i) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
 - (ii) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article, in a foreign State, and for which he or she is, under any law relating to extradition or fugitive offenders, liable to be arrested or detained in custody in the Republic. 15

(2) On the arrest of a person contemplated in subsection (1) or in terms of section 40 or 43 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, a police official may search for and perform the powers referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of the definition of “seize” in respect of a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer system referred to in the definition of “article, which is found in the possession of or in the custody or under the control of the person. 20

(3) A police official may only access or perform the powers referred to in paragraphs (c) or (d) of the definition of “seize”, in respect of a computer data storage medium or a computer system referred to in subsection (2), in accordance with a search warrant issued in terms of section 29(1)(a): Provided that a police official may, if he or she on reasonable grounds believes— 25

- (a) that a search warrant will be issued to him or her under section 29(1)(a) if he or she applies for such warrant; and
- (b) it is not reasonably practicable, having regard to the urgency of the case or the existence of exceptional circumstances, to make a written or oral application for a search warrant, 30

access and perform the powers referred to in paragraphs (c) or (d) of the definition of “seize” without a search warrant.

(4) An investigator authorised in writing by a police official may assist the police official to seize an article as contemplated subsections (2) and (3) and to access the article as contemplated in subsection (3). 35

Assisting police official or investigator

34. (1) An electronic communications service provider, financial institution or person, other than the person who is suspected of having committed the offence which is being investigated, who is in control of any container, premises, vehicle, facility, ship, aircraft, data, computer program, computer data storage medium or computer system that is subject to a search authorised in terms of section 29(1) must, if required, provide— 40

- (a) technical assistance; and
- (b) such other assistance as may be reasonably necessary, 45

to a police official or investigator in order to search for, access or seize an article.

(2) An electronic communications service provider, financial institution or person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment. 50

Obstructing or hindering police official or investigator and authority to overcome resistance

35. (1) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally obstructs or hinders a police official or an investigator in the exercise of his or her powers or the performance of his or her duties or functions in terms of this Chapter or who refuses or fails to comply with a search warrant issued in terms of section 29(1), is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment. 55

- (2) (a) A police official who may lawfully execute any power conferred upon him or her in terms of section 29(2), may use such force as may be—
- (i) reasonably necessary; and
 - (ii) proportional to all the circumstances,
- relating to the execution of such powers. 5
- (b) No police official may enter upon or search any premises, vehicle, facility, ship or aircraft unless he or she has audibly demanded admission to the premises, vehicle, facility, ship or aircraft and has notified the purpose of his or her entry.
- (c) The provisions of paragraph (b) do not apply where the police official is, on reasonable grounds, of the opinion that an article which is the subject of the search may be destroyed, disposed of or tampered with if the provisions of paragraph (b) are complied with. 10

Powers conferred upon police official or investigator to be conducted in decent and orderly manner with due regard to rights of other persons

36. (1) The powers conferred upon a police official or an investigator in terms of section 29(2), 31, 32 or 33, must be conducted— 15
- (a) with strict regard to decency and order; and
 - (b) with due regard to the rights, responsibilities and legitimate interests of other persons in proportion to the severity of the offence.
- (2) If a female needs to be searched physically in terms of section 29(2)(a), (c) or (d), 32 or 33, such search must be carried out by a police official who is also a female: Provided that if no female police official is available, the search must be carried out by any female designated for that purpose by a police official. 20

Wrongful search, access or seizure and restriction on use of instrument, device, password or decryption key or information to gain access 25

37. (1) A police official or an investigator who unlawfully and intentionally—
- (a) acts contrary to the authority of—
 - (i) a search warrant issued under section 29(1); or
 - (ii) consent granted in terms of section 31(1); or
 - (b) without being authorised thereto under this Chapter or the provision of any other law which affords similar powers to a police official or investigator— 30
 - (i) searches for, accesses or seizes data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer; or
 - (ii) obtains or uses any instrument, device, password, decryption key or other information that is necessary to access data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer system, 35
- is guilty of an offence.
- (2) (a) A police official or an investigator who obtains or uses any instrument, device, equipment, password, decryption key, data or other information contemplated in section 29(2)(h)— 40
- (i) must use the instrument, device, equipment, password, decryption key, data or information only in respect of and to the extent specified in the warrant to gain access to or use data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer system in the manner and for the purposes specified in the search warrant concerned; and 45
 - (ii) must destroy all passwords, decryption keys, data or other information if—
 - (aa) it is not required by a person who may lawfully possess the passwords, decryption keys, data or other information;
 - (bb) it will not be required for purposes of any criminal proceedings or civil proceedings contemplated in Chapter 5 or 6 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 1998, or for purposes of evidence or for purposes of an order of court; or 50
 - (cc) no criminal proceedings or civil proceedings as contemplated in Chapter 5 or 6 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 1998, are to be instituted in connection with such information. 55
- (b) A police official or an investigator who unlawfully and intentionally—
- (i) uses an instrument, device, equipment, password, decryption key, data or information outside the authorisation of a warrant as contemplated in paragraph (a)(i); or

(ii) fails to destroy all passwords, decryption keys, data or other information as contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii),
is guilty of an offence.

(3) A police official or an investigator who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2), is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 2 years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(4) Where a police official or an investigator is convicted of an offence referred to in subsection (1) or (2), the court convicting such a person may, upon application of any person who has suffered damage or upon the application of the prosecutor acting on the instructions of that person, award compensation in respect of such damage, whereupon the provisions of section 300 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, apply with the necessary changes required by the context to such award.

False information under oath or by way of affirmation

38. (1) Any person who unlawfully or intentionally gives false information under oath or by way of affirmation knowing it to be false or not knowing it to be true, with the result that—

- (a) a search warrant is issued;
 - (b) a search contemplated in section 31 took place on the basis of such information;
 - (c) a person, container, premises, vehicle, facility, ship or aircraft is searched or a computer data storage medium or any part of a computer system is seized or accessed in terms of section 32;
 - (d) an expedited preservation of data direction contemplated in section 41 is issued;
 - (e) a preservation of evidence direction contemplated in section 42 is issued; or
 - (f) a disclosure of data direction contemplated in section 44 is issued,
- is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 2 years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Where a person is convicted of an offence referred to in subsection (1), the court convicting such a person may, upon application of any person who has suffered damage or upon the application of the prosecutor acting on the instructions of that person, award compensation in respect of such damage, whereupon the provisions of section 300 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, apply with the necessary changes required by the context to such award.

Prohibition on disclosure of information

39. (1) No person, investigator, police official, electronic communications service provider, financial institution or an employee of an electronic communications service provider or financial institution may, subject to subsection (2), disclose any information which he, she or it has obtained in the exercise of his, her or its powers or the performance of his, her or its duties in terms of Chapters 4 or 5 of this Act, except—

- (a) to any other person who of necessity requires it for the performance of his or her functions in terms of this Act;
- (b) if he or she is a person who of necessity supplies such information in the performance of his or her duties or functions in terms of this Act;
- (c) if it is information which is required in terms of any law or as evidence in any court of law;
- (d) if it constitutes information-sharing between electronic communications service providers, financial institutions, the South African Police Service, competent authorities or any other person or entity which is aimed at preventing, detecting, investigating or mitigating cybercrime: Provided that such information-sharing may not prejudice any criminal investigation or criminal proceedings; or
- (e) to any competent authority in a foreign State which requires it for the prevention, detection, or mitigation of cybercrime, or the institution of criminal proceedings or an investigation with a view to institute criminal proceedings.

(2) The prohibition on disclosure of information contemplated in subsection (1) does not apply where the disclosure—

- (a) is protected or authorised under the Protected Disclosures Act, 2000, the Companies Act, 2008, the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, 2004, the National Environmental Management Act, 1998, or the Labour Relations Act, 1995;
- (b) is authorised in terms of this Act or any other Act of Parliament; or 5
- (c) reveals a criminal activity.

(3) A person, investigator, police official, electronic communications service provider, financial institution or an employee of an electronic communications service provider or financial institution who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 three years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

Interception of indirect communication, obtaining of real-time communication-related information and archived communication-related information

40. (1) The interception of data which is an indirect communication as defined in section 1 of the Regulation of Interception of Communications and Provision of 15 Communication-related Information Act, 2002, must take place in terms of a direction issued in terms of section 16(4) or 18(3) of that Act and must, subject to subsection (4), be dealt with further in the manner provided for in that Act.

(2) The obtaining of real-time communication-related information as defined in section 1 of the Regulation of Interception of Communications and Provision of 20 Communication-related Information Act, 2002, on an ongoing basis, as it becomes available must take place in terms of a direction issued in terms of section 17(3) or 18(3) of that Act, and must, subject to subsection (4), be dealt with further in the manner provided for in that Act.

(3) An electronic communications service provider who is— 25

- (a) in terms of section 30(1)(b) of the Regulation of Interception of Communications and Provision of Communication-related Information Act, 2002, required to provide an electronic communications service which has the capability to store communication-related information; and
 - (b) not required to store communication-related information in terms of a 30 directive issued in terms of section 30(2) of that Act,
- must, in addition to any other obligation imposed by any law, comply with—
- (i) a real-time communication-related direction contemplated in subsection (2) in terms of which the electronic communications service provider is directed to provide real-time communication-related information in respect of a customer, 35 on an ongoing basis, as it becomes available;
 - (ii) an expedited preservation of data direction contemplated in section 41, in terms of which the electronic communications service provider is directed to preserve real-time communication-related information in respect of a customer;
 - (iii) a preservation of evidence direction contemplated in section 42 in terms of 40 which the electronic communications service provider is directed to preserve real-time communication-related information in respect of a customer;
 - (iv) a disclosure of data direction contemplated in section 44 in terms of which the electronic communications service provider is directed to provide real-time 45 communication-related information in respect of a customer that was stored by the electronic communications service provider; or
 - (v) any order of the designated judge in terms of section 48(6), in terms of which the electronic communications service provider is ordered to—
 - (aa) obtain and preserve any real-time communication-related information; or
 - (bb) furnish traffic data. 50

(4) Any indirect communication which is intercepted or any real-time communication-related information which is obtained on an ongoing basis, or archived communication-related information which was obtained and stored, or traffic data which is obtained at the request of an authority, court or tribunal exercising jurisdiction in a foreign State must further be dealt with in the manner provided for in an order referred 55 to in section 48(6), which is issued by the designated judge.

Expedited preservation of data direction

41. (1) A specifically designated police official may, if he or she on reasonable grounds believes that any person, an electronic communications service provider referred to in section 40(3), or a financial institution, is in possession of, is to receive, or is in control of data—

- (a) which is relevant to;
 - (b) which was used or may be used in;
 - (c) for the purposes of or in connection with;
 - (d) which has facilitated or may facilitate; or
 - (e) which may afford evidence of,
- the commission or intended commission of—
- (i) an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2;
 - (ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by, the use of an article; or
 - (iii) an offence—
 - (aa) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
 - (bb) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article, in a foreign State,
- issue, with due regard to the rights, responsibilities and legitimate interests of other persons in proportion to the severity of the offence in question, an expedited preservation of data direction to such a person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution.
- (2) Subsection (1) also applies to—
- (a) archived communication-related information which an electronic communications service provider is no longer required to store due to the fact that the period contemplated in section 30(2)(a)(iii) of the Regulation of Interception of Communications and Provision of Communication-related Information Act, 2002, is due to come to an end; or
 - (b) any other data—
 - (i) which must be stored for a certain period in terms of any other law and that period is due to come to an end; or
 - (ii) which is stored by an electronic communications service provider which is not real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information as contemplated in section 1, read with section 30(2) and any directive issued in terms of that section, of the Regulation of Interception of Communications and Provision of Communication-related Information Act, 2002.
- (3) An expedited preservation of data direction must be in the prescribed form and must be served on the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution affected thereby, in the prescribed manner by a police official.
- (4) An expedited preservation of data direction must direct the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution affected thereby, from the time of service of the direction, and for a period of 21 days—
- (a) to preserve the current status of;
 - (b) not to deal in any manner with; or
 - (c) to deal in a certain manner with,
- the data referred to in the direction in order to preserve the availability and integrity of the data.
- (5) No data may be disclosed to a police official on the strength of an expedited preservation of data direction unless it is authorised in terms of section 44.
- (6) The 21 day period referred to in subsection (4), may only be extended by way of a preservation of evidence direction contemplated in section 42, once, for an additional period which may not exceed 90 days.
- (7) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to whom an expedited preservation of data direction, referred to in subsection (1), is addressed may, in writing in the prescribed form and manner, apply to a magistrate in whose area of jurisdiction the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution is situated, for an amendment or the cancellation of the direction concerned on the ground that he, she or it cannot timeously or in a reasonable fashion, comply with the direction.
- (8) The magistrate to whom an application is made in terms of subsection (7) must, as soon as possible after receipt thereof—
- (a) consider the application and may for this purpose, order oral or written evidence to be adduced regarding any fact alleged in the application;
 - (b) give a decision in respect of the application; and

(c) inform the applicant and specifically designated police official referred to in subsection (1) of the outcome of the application.

(9) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution referred to in subsection (1) who—

(a) fails to comply with an expedited preservation of data direction or contravenes the provisions of subsection (5); or

(b) makes a false statement in an application referred to in subsection (7), is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

Preservation of evidence direction

42. (1) A magistrate or judge of the High Court may, on written application by a police official, if it appears to the magistrate or judge, from information on oath or by way of affirmation, as set out in the application, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution may receive, is in possession of, or is in control of an article—

(a) relevant to;

(b) which was used or may be used in;

(c) for the purpose of or in connection with;

(d) which has facilitated or may facilitate; or

(e) which may afford evidence of,

the commission or intended commission of—

(i) an offence under Part I or Part II of Chapter 2;

(ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article; or

(iii) an offence—

(aa) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or

(bb) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article, in a foreign State, with due regard to the rights, responsibilities and legitimate interests of other persons in proportion to the severity of the offence in question, issue a preservation of evidence direction.

(2) A preservation of evidence direction must be in the prescribed form and must be served on the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution affected thereby, in the prescribed manner by a police official.

(3) The preservation of evidence direction must direct the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution, from the time of service of the direction, and for the time period specified in the direction, which may not exceed 90 days—

(a) to preserve the current status of;

(b) not to deal in any manner with; or

(c) to deal in a certain manner with,

an article in order to preserve the availability of or integrity of the article.

(4) Any person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution who fails to comply with a preservation of evidence direction is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(5) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to whom a preservation of evidence direction referred to in subsection (1) is addressed may, in writing in the prescribed form and manner, apply to a magistrate or judge of the High Court in whose area of jurisdiction the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution is situated for an amendment or the cancellation of the direction concerned on the ground that he, she or it cannot timeously or in a reasonable fashion, comply with the order.

(6) The magistrate or judge of the High Court to whom an application is made in terms of subsection (5) must, as soon as possible after receipt thereof—

(a) consider the application and may, for this purpose, order oral or written evidence to be adduced regarding any fact alleged in the application;

(b) give a decision in respect of the application; and

(c) inform the applicant and police official of the outcome of the application.

Oral application for preservation of evidence direction

43. (1) An application referred to in section 42(1), may be made orally by a police official, if he or she is of the opinion that it is not reasonably practicable, having regard to the urgency of the case or the existence of exceptional circumstances, to make written application. 5

(2) An oral application referred to in subsection (1) must—

- (a) indicate the particulars of the urgency of the case or the other exceptional circumstances which, in the opinion of the police official, justify the making of an oral application; and
- (b) comply with any supplementary directives relating to oral applications which may be issued by the Chief Justice in terms of section 8(3) of the Superior Courts Act, 2013. 10

(3) A magistrate or judge of the High Court may, upon an oral application made to him or her in terms of subsection (1), with due regard to the rights, responsibilities and legitimate interests of other persons in proportion to the severity of the offence in question, issue the preservation of evidence direction applied for. 15

(4) A preservation of evidence direction may only be issued under subsection (3)—

- (a) if the magistrate or judge of the High Court concerned is satisfied, on the facts alleged in the oral application concerned, that—
 - (i) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a preservation of evidence direction applied for could be issued; 20
 - (ii) a preservation of evidence direction is necessary immediately in order to ensure the availability of, or integrity of the article; and
 - (iii) it is not reasonably practicable, having regard to the urgency of the case or the existence of exceptional circumstances, to make a written application for the issuing of the preservation of evidence direction applied for; and 25
- (b) on condition that the police official concerned must submit a written application to the magistrate or judge of the High Court concerned within 48 hours after the issuing of the preservation of evidence direction under subsection (3). 30

(5) A preservation of evidence direction issued under subsection (3) must be in writing and must be transmitted electronically to the police official or be provided to the specifically designated police official.

(6) A magistrate or judge of the High Court who issued a direction under subsection (3) or, if he or she is not available, any other magistrate or judge of the High Court must, upon receipt of a written application submitted to him or her in terms of subsection (4)(b), reconsider that application whereupon he or she may confirm, amend or cancel that preservation of evidence direction. 35

Disclosure of data direction and search for, access to and seizure of articles subject to preservation of evidence direction 40

44. (1) Where—

- (a) an expedited preservation of data direction or a preservation of evidence direction is in place and it is expedient to obtain data without issuing a search warrant contemplated in section 29(1); or 45
- (b) it is otherwise expedient to obtain data without issuing a search warrant contemplated in section 29(1), a magistrate or judge of the High Court may, subject to section 4(3) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, sections 69(2)(b) and section 71 of the Tax Administration Act, 2011 and section 21(e) and (f) of the Customs Control Act, 2014, on written application by a police official, if it appears to the magistrate or judge from information on oath or by way of affirmation, as set out in the application, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution, other than the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution who is suspected of having committed the offence which is being investigated, may receive, is in possession of, or is in control of data which is relevant to or which may afford evidence of the commission or intended commission of— 50

- (i) an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
- (ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article, 60

issue a disclosure of data direction.

(2) An application contemplated in subsection (1) must—

- (a) contain the identity of the police official who applies for the disclosure of data direction;
- (b) identify the customer, if known, or the service or communication in respect of whom data is to be provided; 5
- (c) identify the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to whom the disclosure of data direction must be addressed;
- (d) contain a description of the data which must be provided and the format in which it must be provided; 10
- (e) contain a description of the offence which has been or is being or will probably be committed; and
- (f) comply with any supplementary directives relating to applications for expedited disclosure of data, which may be issued by the Chief Justice in terms of section 8(3) of the Superior Courts Act, 2013. 15

(3) Upon receipt of an application in terms of subsection (1), a magistrate or judge must satisfy himself or herself—

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
 - (i) an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
 - (ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article, has been, is being or will probably be committed or that it is necessary to determine whether such an offence has been so committed; and 20
- (b) that it will be in the interests of justice if a disclosure of data direction is issued. 25

(4) A disclosure of data direction must be in the prescribed form and must be served on the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution affected thereby, in the prescribed manner by a police official.

(5) The disclosure of data direction—

- (a) must direct the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to provide data identified in the direction to the extent set out in the direction to an identified police official; 30
- (b) must set out the period within which the data identified in paragraph (a) must be provided; and
- (c) may specify conditions or restrictions relating to the provision of data authorised therein. 35

(6) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to whom a disclosure of data direction referred to in subsection (5) is addressed may, in writing in the prescribed form and manner, apply to the magistrate or judge for an amendment or the cancellation of the direction concerned on the ground that he or she cannot timeously or in a reasonable fashion comply with the direction. 40

(7) The magistrate or judge to whom an application is made in terms of subsection (6) must, as soon as possible after receipt thereof—

- (a) consider the application and may, for this purpose, order oral or written evidence to be adduced regarding any fact alleged in the application; 45
- (b) give a decision in respect of the application; and
- (c) if the application is successful, inform the police official of the outcome of the application.

(8) Any data which is made available in terms of a disclosure of data direction, must be— 50

- (a) provided to the police official identified in the direction; and
- (b) accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form by the person or authorised representative of an electronic communications service provider or financial institution, verifying the authenticity, integrity and reliability of the data that is furnished. 55

(9) A person, electronic communications service provider or a financial institution who—

- (a) fails to comply with a disclosure of data direction;
- (b) makes a false statement in an application referred to in subsection (6); or
- (c) fails to comply with subsection (8), 60

is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(10) (a) Any article subject to a preservation of evidence direction that is not “data” must be seized in terms of a warrant referred to in section 29(1).

(b) A police official may, at any time, apply for a search warrant in terms of section 29(1) to search for, access or seize an article (which includes “data”) that is or was subject to a preservation of evidence direction.

Obtaining and using publicly available data or receiving data from person who is in possession of data

45. A police official may, without being specifically authorised thereto in terms of this Chapter, for the purposes of investigating any offence or suspected offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 or any other offence or suspected offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article—

(a) receive, obtain or use publicly available data regardless of where the data is located geographically; or

(b) receive and use non-publicly available data, regardless of where the data is located geographically, if a person who is in control of, or possesses the data, voluntarily and on such conditions regarding confidentiality and limitation of use which he or she deems necessary, discloses the data to a police official.

MUTUAL ASSISTANCE

20

Application of provisions in this Chapter

46. The provisions of sections 48 to 51 apply in addition to Chapter 2 of the International Co-operation in Criminal Matters Act, 1996, and relate, unless specified otherwise, to the preservation of an article or other evidence in electronic format regarding the commission or suspected commission of—

25

(a) an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2;

(b) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article; or

(c) an offence—

(i) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or

30

(ii) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article, in a foreign State, pending a request in terms of section 2 or 7 of the International Co-operation in Criminal Matters Act, 1996.

Spontaneous information

47. (1) The National Commissioner or the National Head of the Directorate, may, on such conditions regarding confidentiality and limitation of use as he or she may determine furnish any information obtained during any investigation, to a law enforcement agency of a foreign State when the National Commissioner or the National Head of the Directorate is of the opinion that the disclosure of such information may—

40

(a) assist the foreign State in the initiation or carrying out of investigations; or

(b) lead to further cooperation with a foreign State to carry out an investigation, regarding the commission or suspected commission of—

(i) an offence contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2, in the Republic;

45

(ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed or facilitated by means of an article; or

(iii) an offence—

(aa) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or

(bb) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may be committed by means of or facilitated by the use of an article, in that foreign State.

50

(2) The South African Police Service may receive any information from a foreign State, subject to such conditions regarding confidentiality and limitation of use as may be agreed upon, which will—

55

- (a) assist the South African Police Service in the initiation or carrying out of investigations; or
- (b) lead to further cooperation with a foreign State to carry out an investigation, regarding the commission or suspected commission of—
 - (i) an offence contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2, in the Republic; 5
 - (ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of or facilitated by, an article; or
 - (iii) an offence—
 - (aa) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
 - (bb) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may 10 be committed by means of or facilitated by the use of an article, in that foreign State.

Foreign requests for assistance and cooperation

48. (1) A request by an authority, court or tribunal exercising jurisdiction in a foreign State for the— 15

- (a) preservation of data or other article;
- (b) seizure of data or other article;
- (c) expedited disclosure of traffic data;
- (d) obtaining of real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information; or 20
- (e) interception of indirect communications, must, subject to subsection (7), be submitted to the designated Point of Contact.

(2) The designated Point of Contact must submit the request to the National Director of Public Prosecutions for consideration.

(3) (a) Upon receipt of a request referred to in subsection (2), the National Director of Public Prosecutions must satisfy himself or herself— 25

- (i) that proceedings have been instituted in a court or tribunal exercising jurisdiction in the requesting foreign State; or
- (ii) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that an offence has been committed in the requesting foreign State or that it is necessary to determine 30 whether an offence has been so committed and that an investigation in respect thereof is being conducted in the requesting foreign State; and
- (iii) that the offence in question is—
 - (aa) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
 - (bb) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may 35 be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article; and
- (iv) that the foreign State intends to submit a request in terms of section 7 of the International Co-operation in Criminal Matters Act, 1996, for obtaining the data, information, communication or article in the Republic for use in such 40 proceedings or investigation in the foreign State.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), the National Director of Public Prosecutions may rely on a certificate purported to be issued by a competent authority in the foreign State concerned, stating the facts contemplated in subsection 3(a).

(4) (a) The National Director of Public Prosecutions must submit the request for assistance, together with his or her recommendations, to the Cabinet member 45 responsible for the administration of justice, for his or her approval.

(b) Upon being notified of the Cabinet member's approval the National Director of Public Prosecutions must forward the request contemplated in subsection (1) to the designated judge for consideration.

(5) Where the request relates to the expedited disclosure of traffic data, subsections 50 (3)(a)(iv) and (4) do not apply, and the National Director of Public Prosecutions must submit the request for assistance, together with his or her recommendations, to the designated judge.

(6) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), the designated judge may on receipt of a request referred to in subsection (4) or (5), issue any order which he or she deems appropriate 55 to ensure that the requested—

- (a) data or other article is preserved in accordance with section 42;
- (b) data or other article is seized on an expedited basis in accordance with section 29 and preserved;
- (c) traffic data is disclosed on an expedited basis in accordance with section 60 44(1);

- (d) real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information, is obtained and preserved; or
- (e) indirect communications are intercepted and preserved, as is specified in the request.
- (7) The designated judge may only issue an order contemplated in subsection (6), if— 5
- (a) on the facts alleged in the request, there are reasonable grounds to believe that—
- (i) an offence substantially similar to the offences contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 has been or is being or will probably be committed; 10 or
- (ii) any other offence substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, has been or is being or will probably be committed by means of, or facilitated through the use of an article; and
- (iii) for purposes of the investigation it is necessary, in the interests of justice, to give an order contemplated in subsection (6); 15
- (b) the request clearly identifies—
- (i) the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution—
- (aa) who or which will receive, is in possession of, or is in control of, the data or other article that must be preserved; or 20
- (bb) from whose facilities the data, real-time communication-related information, archived communication-related information, indirect communications or traffic data must be obtained or intercepted; and
- (ii) the data or other article which must be preserved;
- (iii) the data which must be seized on an expedited basis; 25
- (iv) the traffic data which must be disclosed on an expedited basis;
- (v) the real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information, which is to be obtained; or
- (vi) the indirect communication, which are to be intercepted;
- (c) the request is, where applicable, in accordance with— 30
- (i) any treaty, convention or other agreement to which that foreign State and the Republic are parties or which can be used as a basis for mutual assistance; or
- (ii) any agreement with any foreign State entered into in terms of section 57; 35 and
- (d) the order contemplated in subsection (6) is in accordance with any applicable law of the Republic.
- (8) Where a request relates to the expedited disclosure of traffic data as contemplated in subsection (6)(c), the designated judge may— 40
- (a) specify conditions or restrictions relating to the disclosure of traffic data as he or she deems appropriate; or
- (b) refuse to issue an order referred to in subsection (6)(c), if the disclosure of the traffic data will, or is likely to, prejudice the sovereignty, security, public safety, or other essential interests of the Republic.
- (9) (a) In the case of urgency, a request by any authority, court or tribunal exercising jurisdiction in a foreign State referred to in subsection (1), may be submitted directly to the designated judge. 45
- (b) Upon receipt of a request in terms of paragraph (a), the designated judge may issue any order referred to in subsection (6).
- (10) (a) An order contemplated in subsection (6) must be served or executed by a specifically designated police official. 50
- (b) The specifically designated police official referred to in paragraph (a), must inform—
- (i) the designated judge; and
- (ii) the National Director of Public Prosecutions, 55
in writing, of the fact that an order has been served or executed.
- (11) The National Director of Public Prosecutions must, in writing, inform the applicable authority in a foreign State of the fact that an order was issued and executed or not issued.

Complying with order of designated judge

49. (1) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution must comply with an order of the designated judge issued in terms of section 48(6).
- (2) A person electronic communications service provider or financial institution to whom an order referred to in section 48(6) is addressed may, in writing, apply to the designated judge for an amendment or the cancellation of the order concerned on the ground that he, she or it cannot timeously or in a reasonable fashion, comply with the order. 5
- (3) The designated judge to whom an application is made in terms of subsection (2) must, as soon as possible after receipt thereof— 10
- (a) consider the application and may, for this purpose, order oral or written evidence to be adduced regarding any fact alleged in the application;
 - (b) give a decision in respect of the application; and
 - (c) if the application is successful, inform the National Director of Public Prosecutions of the outcome of the application. 15
- (4) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution who—
- (a) fails to comply with an order referred to in section 48(6); or
 - (b) makes a false statement in an application referred to in subsection (2),
- is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment. 20

Informing foreign State of outcome of request for mutual assistance and expedited disclosure of traffic data

50. (1) The National Director of Public Prosecutions must inform— 25
- (a) the designated judge; and
 - (b) the applicable authority in a foreign State,
- of the outcome of the request for assistance and cooperation.
- (2) Any traffic data which is made available in terms of an order referred to in section 48(6)(c), must be—
- (a) provided to the designated Point of Contact, in the prescribed manner, for submission to the applicable in authority in a foreign State; and 30
 - (b) accompanied by—
 - (i) a copy of the order referred to in section 48(6); and
 - (ii) an affidavit in the prescribed form by the person or authorised representative of an electronic communications service provider or financial institution, verifying the authenticity, integrity and reliability of the information that is furnished. 35
- (3) The information referred to in subsection (2)(a), together with the copy of the order and affidavit referred to in subsection (2)(b), must be provided to the applicable authority in a foreign State which requested the assistance in terms of section 48(1). 40
- (4) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution who—
- (a) fails to comply with any regulations contemplated in section 59(1)(a)(xx); or
 - (b) makes a false statement in an affidavit referred to in subsection (2)(b)(ii),
- is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment. 45

Issuing of direction requesting assistance from foreign State

51. (1) If it appears to a magistrate from information on oath or by way of affirmation that there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
- (a) an offence contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or 50
 - (b) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed or facilitated by means of an article,
- has been committed or that it is necessary to determine whether the offence has been so committed and that it is necessary, pending the issuing of a letter of request in terms of section 2(2) of the International Co-operation in Criminal Matters Act, 1996, to— 55
- (i) preserve data or other articles;
 - (ii) seize data or other articles on an expedited basis;
 - (iii) disclose traffic data on an expedited basis;

- (iv) obtain real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information; or
 - (v) intercept indirect communications,
- within the area of jurisdiction of a foreign State, the magistrate may issue a direction in the prescribed form in which assistance from that foreign State is sought as is stated in the direction. 5
- (2) A direction contemplated in subsection (1) must specify that—
- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that an offence contemplated in this Act has been committed in the Republic or that it is necessary to determine whether an offence has been committed; 10
 - (b) an investigation in respect thereof is being conducted; and
 - (c) for purposes of the investigation it is necessary, in the interests of justice, that—
 - (i) data or other articles specified in the direction be preserved;
 - (ii) data or any other article specified in the direction is to be seized on an expedited basis and be preserved; 15
 - (iii) traffic data specified in the direction, be disclosed on an expedited basis;
 - (iv) real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information specified in the direction, be obtained and be preserved; or 20
 - (v) indirect communication, specified in the direction, be intercepted and be preserved, within the area of jurisdiction of a foreign State.
- (3) The direction must be sent to the National Director of Public Prosecutions for transmission to— 25
- (a) the appropriate authority in the foreign State; or
 - (b) a designated point of contact in the foreign State,
- which is requested to provide assistance and cooperation.

CHAPTER 6

POINT OF CONTACT 30

Establishment and functions of designated Point of Contact

52. (1) The National Commissioner must—
- (a) establish or designate an office within existing structures of the South African Police Service to be known as the designated Point of Contact for the Republic; and 35
 - (b) equip, operate and maintain the designated Point of Contact.
- (2) The National Commissioner exercises final responsibility over the administration and functioning of the designated Point of Contact.
- (3) (a) The designated Point of Contact must ensure the provision of immediate assistance for the purpose of proceedings or investigations regarding the commission or intended commission of— 40
- (i) an offence under Part I or Part II of Chapter 2;
 - (ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed or facilitated by means of an article; or
 - (iii) an offence— 45
 - (aa) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
 - (bb) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of an article, in a foreign State.
- (b) The assistance contemplated in subsection (3)(a), includes— 50
- (i) the provision of technical advice and assistance;
 - (ii) the facilitation or provision of assistance regarding anything which is authorised under Chapters 4 or 5;
 - (iii) the provision of legal assistance;
 - (iv) the identification and location of an article; 55
 - (v) the identification and location of a suspect; and
 - (vi) cooperation with appropriate authorities of a foreign State.
- (4) The Cabinet member responsible for policing may make regulations to further—
- (a) regulate any aspect provided for in subsection (3);

- (b) impose additional duties on the designated Point of Contact; and
 - (c) regulate any aspect which is necessary or expedient for the proper implementation of this section.
- (5) The National Director of Public Prosecutions must make available members of the National Prosecuting Authority— 5
- (a) who have particular knowledge and skills in respect of any aspect dealt with in this Act; and
 - (b) to whom a security clearance has been issued by the State Security Agency in terms of section 2A of the National Strategic Intelligence Act, 1994, to the satisfaction of the National Director of Public Prosecutions, 10
- to provide legal assistance to the designated Point of Contact as may be necessary or expedient for the effective operation of the designated Point of Contact.
- (6) (a) The Cabinet member responsible for policing must, at the end of each financial year, submit a report to the Chairperson of the Joint Standing Committee on Intelligence established by section 2 of the Intelligence Services Control Act, 1994, on the functions 15 and activities of the designated Point of Contact.
- (b) The report contemplated in paragraph (a) must include—
 - (i) the number of matters in which assistance were provided in terms of subsection (3)(a); and
 - (ii) the number of matters in which assistance were received from a foreign State. 20

CHAPTER 7

EVIDENCE

Proof of certain facts by affidavit

53. (1) Whenever any fact established by any examination or process requiring any skill in— 25
- (a) the interpretation of data;
 - (b) the design of, or functioning of data, a computer program, a computer data storage medium or a computer system;
 - (c) computer science;
 - (d) electronic communications networks and technology; 30
 - (e) software engineering; or
 - (f) computer programming,
- is or may become relevant to an issue at criminal proceedings or civil proceedings as contemplated in Chapter 5 or 6 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 1998, a document purporting to be an affidavit or a solemn or attested declaration made by a 35 person who, in that document, states that he or she—
- (i) (aa) falls within a category of persons within the Republic; or
 - (bb) is in the service of a body in the Republic or a foreign State, designated by the Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice, by notice in the Gazette; 40
 - (ii) possesses relevant qualifications, expertise and experience which make him or her competent to make the affidavit; and
 - (iii) has established such fact by means of an examination or process that is documented in the document, 45
- is, upon its mere production at such proceedings, prima facie proof of such fact.
- (2) Any person who makes an affidavit or a solemn or attested declaration under subsection (1) and who in such affidavit or solemn or attested declaration wilfully states anything which is false, is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment. 50
- (3) The court before which an affidavit or solemn or attested declaration is produced as prima facie proof of the relevant contents thereof may, in its discretion, cause the person who made the affidavit or solemn or attested declaration to be subpoenaed to give oral evidence in the proceedings in question or may cause written interrogatories to be submitted to such person for reply and such interrogatories and any reply thereto 55 purporting to be a reply from such person are likewise admissible in evidence at such proceedings.

(4) No provision of this section affects any other law under which any certificate or other document is admissible in evidence and the provisions of this section are deemed to be additional to and not in substitution of any such law.

(5) (a) For the purposes of subsection (1), a document purporting to be an affidavit or a solemn or attested declaration made by a person who in that affidavit alleges that he or she is in the service of a body in the Republic or a foreign State designated by the Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice, by notice in the Gazette, has no effect unless—

- (i) it is obtained in terms of an order of a competent court or on the authority of a government institution of the foreign State concerned, as the case may be; and
- (ii) it is authenticated—
 - (aa) in the manner prescribed in the rules of court for the authentication of documents executed outside the Republic; or
 - (bb) by a person and in the manner contemplated in section 7 or 8 of the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Act, 1963.

(b) The admissibility and evidentiary value of an affidavit contemplated in paragraph (a) are not affected by the fact that the form of the oath, confirmation or attestation thereof differs from the form of the oath, confirmation or attestation prescribed in the Republic.

(c) A court before which an affidavit or a solemn or attested declaration contemplated in paragraph (a) is placed may, in order to clarify any obscurities in the said affidavit, order that a supplementary affidavit or a solemn or attested declaration be submitted or that oral evidence be heard: Provided that oral evidence may only be heard if the court is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the administration of justice and that a party to the proceedings would be prejudiced materially if oral evidence is not heard.

CHAPTER 8

REPORTING OBLIGATIONS AND CAPACITY BUILDING

Obligations of electronic communications service providers and financial institutions

54. (1) An electronic communications service provider or financial institution that is aware or becomes aware that its computer system is involved in the commission of any category or class of offences provided for in Part I of Chapter 2 and which is determined in terms of subsection (2), must—

- (a) without undue delay and, where feasible, not later than 72 hours after having become aware of the offence, report the offence in the prescribed form and manner to the South African Police Service; and
- (b) preserve any information which may be of assistance to the law enforcement agencies in investigating the offence.

(2) The Cabinet member responsible for policing, in consultation with the Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice, must by notice in the Gazette, prescribe—

- (a) the category or class of offences which must be reported to the South African Police Service in terms of subsection (1); and
- (b) the form and manner in which an electronic communications service provider or financial institution must report offences to the South African Police Service.

(3) An electronic communications service provider or financial institution that fails to comply with subsection (1), is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R50 000.

(4) Subject to any other law, or obligation, the provisions of subsection (1) must not be interpreted as to impose obligations on an electronic service provider or financial institution to—

- (a) monitor the data which the electronic communications service provider or financial institution transmits or stores; or
- (b) actively seek facts or circumstances indicating any unlawful activity.

(5) This Chapter does not apply to a financial sector regulator or a function performed by the South African Reserve Bank in terms of section 10 of the South African Reserve Bank Act, 1989.

Capacity to detect, prevent and investigate cybercrimes

55. (1) The Cabinet member responsible for policing must—
- (a) establish and maintain sufficient human and operational capacity to detect, prevent and investigate cybercrimes;
 - (b) ensure that members of the South African Police Service receive basic training in aspects relating to the detection, prevention and investigation of cybercrimes; and
 - (c) in co-operation with any institution of higher learning, in the Republic or elsewhere, develop and implement accredited training programs for members of the South African Police Service primarily involved with the detection, prevention and investigation of cybercrimes.
- (2) The Cabinet Member responsible for policing may make regulations to further regulate any aspect referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) The Cabinet Member responsible for policing must, at the end of each financial year, submit a report to Parliament regarding—
- (a) progress made with the implementation of this section;
 - (b) the number of—
 - (i) offences provided for in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2, which were reported to the South African Police Services;
 - (ii) cases which were, in terms of subparagraph (i), reported to the South African Police Service which resulted in criminal prosecutions; and
 - (iii) cases where no criminal prosecutions were instituted after a period of 18 months after a case was, in terms of subparagraph (i), reported to the South African Police Service; and
 - (c) the number of members of the South African Police Service who received training as contemplated in subsection (1)(b) and (c).

National Director of Public Prosecutions must keep statistics of prosecutions

56. (1) The National Director of Public Prosecutions must keep statistics of the number of prosecutions instituted in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2, the outcome of such prosecution and any other information relating to such prosecutions, which is determined by the Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice.
- (2) The statistics or information contemplated in subsection (1) must be included in the report of the National Director of Public Prosecutions referred to in section 22(4)(g) of the National Prosecuting Authority Act, 1998.

CHAPTER 9

GENERAL PROVISIONS

National Executive may enter into agreements

57. (1) The National Executive may enter into any agreement with any foreign State regarding—
- (a) the provision of mutual assistance and cooperation relating to the investigation and prosecution of—
 - (i) an offence under Part I or Part II of Chapter 2;
 - (ii) any other offence in terms of the laws of the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of, an article; or
 - (iii) an offence—
 - (aa) similar to those contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2; or
 - (bb) substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, which may be committed by means of, or facilitated by the use of, an article, in that foreign State;
 - (b) the implementation of cybercrime response activities;
 - (c) training, research, information and technology-sharing and the exchange of information on the detection, prevention, mitigation and investigation of cybercrimes;
 - (d) the establishment or designation of points of contact to facilitate the provision of mutual assistance and cooperation as contemplated in paragraph (a);

- (e) the implementation of emergency cross-border response mechanisms to mitigate the effect of cybercrimes; and
 - (f) the reciprocal implementation of measures to curb cybercrime.
- (2) A member of the National Executive must, as soon as practical after Parliament has agreed to the ratification of, accession to, amendment of, or revocation of an agreement referred to in subsection (1), give notice thereof in the Gazette. 5

Repeal or amendment of laws

58. The laws mentioned in the Schedule are hereby repealed or amended to the extent reflected in the third column of the Schedule.

Regulations 10

59. (1) The Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice must make regulations—
- (a) to prescribe the—
 - (i) form and manner of the application contemplated in section 20(1);
